Humor and Philosophy

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

The only people who have plenty of money are those who don't need the money.

Pretty clothes are necessary to a woman unless she can't get them.

Being able to afford it has ruined many a man.

The man who goes out of his mind goes into trouble.

It is as hard to believe the things that we don't hear as it is to answer charges that are never made.

The way some people talk you can't help wondering if they are paid for it so much per word.

It is hard to put yourself in his place, and then, too, it might embarrass him.

Some people are good because it is easier in some cases to help than it is to hinder.

Sure Winner.

Modesty wins in the story book. Putting one finally over the crook. Managing in the procession to pass. Creatures of gall and pretension and brass.

Plucking the prize.

To its own surprise. Quietly walking away with the goods. While the pretender elopes to the woods.

Modesty wins in the laudable play. Thwarted at first, it will have its way. Villains may foil it, but not for long. At the home stretch, rousing the goat.

With commendable speed. Tearing the roof from the house for applause. Proving the kind of the drama that draws.

Modesty, yes, in the book or the play. And in the song while the singer holds away. But does it drag off the honors in life. Winning a fortune, an office, a wife.

Forging ahead. In the race on the dead. Putting a crimp in the brazen and bold. Much as the fairy romances have told.

Need we the answer that's patent problem? Not to the ones who are mixed in the game. Not to the ones who can see with their eyes.

Though they are steered by the world to surprise. Modesty? Yes. But its glowing success. Isn't the kind that a fellow can use.

People Will Talk You Know

And that's the reason why Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines are advertised so little now-a-days. They have made hundreds of thousands of cures in the past 40 years, and some of the grateful people whom they have restored to health are to be found almost everywhere. There's scarcely a hamlet that don't contain some. Look them up. Interview them. They are living, walking, active advertisements.

For Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines.

You can believe your neighbors. Therefore ask them. What cured them will very likely cure you, if similarly afflicted—only give them a good, fair trial.

It's a good, sound, common sense policy to use medicines only of KNOWN COMPOSITION, and which contain neither alcohol nor habit-forming drugs. The most intelligent people, and many of the most successful, conscientious physicians, follow this judicious course of action. The leading medical authorities, of all schools of medicine, endorse the ingredients composing Dr. Pierce's medicines. These are plainly printed on wrappers and attested under oath. There's no secrecy; an open publicity, square-deal policy is followed by the makers.

We have a profound desire to avoid all offense to the most delicate sensitiveness of modest women, for whom we entertain the most sincere respect and admiration. We shall not, therefore, particularize here concerning the symptoms and peculiar ailments incident to the sex for which Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has for more than 40 years proven such a boon. We cannot, however, do a better service to the afflicted of the gentler sex than to refer them to Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a great family doctor book of 1000 pages, bound in cloth and given away gratis, or sent, post-paid, on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps—to cover cost of mailing only, or 21 cents for paper covered book. All the delicate ailments and matters about which every woman, whether young or old, single or married, should know, but which their sense of delicacy makes them hesitate to ask even the family physician about, are made plain in this great book. Write for it. Address: WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Pres., 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

SUPREME COURT CONDEMNNS SHIPP

Tennessee Sheriff and His Deputies Adjudged in Contempt.

Washington, May 24.—For the first time in so serious a case, the supreme court of the United States will on next Tuesday week undertake to meet out punishment for the crime for contempt of court itself and the importance of the occasion will be enhanced by the number of defendants. The proceeding will take place in connection with the case of Sheriff Shipp and Deputy Sheriff Gibson, of Hamilton county, Tennessee, and four other residents of that county named, respectively, Williams, Neland, Padgett and May. These men are declared by the court to be guilty of the act of contempt in combining in March, 1905, in a conspiracy to lynch a negro, Ed Johnson, who had been sentenced to death by a local authorities on a charge of rape and in whose case the supreme court had interfered to the extent of granting an appeal which had the effect of a supercharge.

Three Justices Dissent

Justice Beckham delivered a dissenting opinion, declaring that there is not the "slightest testimony" to support the charge against Shipp. He therefore could not believe that the official should be subjected to a possibility of "disgraceful imprisonment," and made an earnest plea against such a course.

Justices White and McKenna concurred in a dissenting opinion.

KILLS HER FOE OF 20 YEARS

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For indigestion, loss of appetite, kidney trouble, lame back, female complaints, it's unequalled. Only 50c at all druggists.

Ice families are prevailing in many of the small towns which have no ice factories. Several firms have sent wagons a distance of 25 miles today to win ice.

The delivery of mails is seriously hampered. Some of the towns on the line of the road have had no mails since last Saturday.

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.
